INGREDIENTS

- 1 cup cotton candy (pink or blue)
- 1 cup whipped cream
- 1/2 cup creamy peanut butter
- 1/2 cup chocolate pudding (store-bought or homemade)
- 1/4 cup crushed Reese's Peanut Butter Cups
- Optional: chocolate syrup for drizzling

DIRECTIONS

- 1. Prepare the Peanut Butter Layer: In a bowl, combine the creamy peanut butter with half of the whipped cream. Stir until smooth and fluffy. This layer is rich and light all at once, and it balances beautifully with the chocolate.
- 2. Start the First Layer: In a clear glass or dessert cup, add a layer of chocolate pudding at the bottom. This creates a rich, chocolatey base that anchors the whole parfait.
- 3. Add the Peanut Butter Mixture: Spoon the peanut butter-whipped cream mixture on top of the pudding. You'll already start to see the dreamy layers coming together.
- 4. Add Cotton Candy: Gently place a layer of cotton candy on top of the peanut butter layer. Don't press it down too much - you want that soft, fluffy texture to shine.
- 5. Repeat the Layers: Repeat with another layer of chocolate pudding, followed by more peanut butter mixture, and top it all off with another fluffy cloud of cotton candy.
- 6. Add the Finishing Touches: Sprinkle crushed Reese's Peanut Butter Cups on top for a satisfying crunch and even more peanut butter-chocolate goodness. If you're feeling extra indulgent, drizzle with chocolate syrup for that perfect finishing touch.
- 7. Serve Immediately: This parfait is best enjoyed right away while the cotton candy is fresh and fluffy. Grab a spoon and dive into the layers of sweetness!
