INGREDIENTS

- 1 box strawberry cake mix
- 1 cup 7Up soda
- 1/2 cup vegetable oil
- 3 large eggs
- 1 cup fresh strawberries, chopped
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice

DIRECTIONS

- 1. Preheat the Oven: Set your oven to 350°F (175°C) and lightly grease a sheet pan. A 9x13-inch pan works perfectly for this recipe.
- 2. Mix the Cake Batter: In a large mixing bowl, combine the strawberry cake mix, 7Up soda, vegetable oil, and eggs. Stir or beat until smooth and no lumps remain. The soda adds an airy texture that makes the cake beautifully soft.
- 3. Add Fresh Strawberries: Gently fold in the chopped strawberries so they're evenly distributed throughout the batter. I love using fresh berries here for that extra pop of sweetness and texture.
- 4. Bake the Cake: Pour the batter into the prepared sheet pan and smooth the top. Bake for 25-30 minutes, or until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean.
- 5. Cool Completely: Remove the cake from the oven and let it cool completely in the pan. This is key so the glaze doesn't melt too quickly when poured over the top.
- 6. Make the Zesty Glaze: In a small bowl, mix the powdered sugar and lemon juice until smooth and slightly thick. Adjust with a little more powdered sugar if you like a thicker glaze, or more lemon juice if you prefer it lighter and tangier.
- 7. Glaze the Cake: Once the cake is fully cooled, pour the glaze evenly over the top. Let it drizzle down and settle into the nooks and crannies for that perfect sweet-tart finish.

8. Slice and Serve: Cut the cake into squares and serve. It's delicious on its own or paired with fresh berries and whipped cream for an extra treat.
